

Priestley out again

JOHN Priestley, who missed last week's 3-2 defeat at Slough is almost certain to be out of action again tomorrow (Saturday) when Wycombe Wanderers travel to Tilbury in the Rothmans Isthmian League. John has a damaged calf muscle which has stiffened and not responded to treatment.

To make matters worse, another midfield player, Alan Davies, is also out with an injury which means that Blues' boss, Ted Powell, is likely to field the same team that lost at Slough. One piece of good news is that Tony Horseman is fit again and he will be bidding for a place with Dylan Evans.

Tilbury are newcomers to Division One this season having been promoted with Croydon. At first, they found life tough in the new division but recently their form suggests they will be a difficult proposition for Wanderers.

They have won four of their last five games including a 1-0 win over Leatherhead, 2-0 against Enfield, 3-0 against Hitchin and a 1-0 win over Dulwich on Tuesday. Their lone defeat came at Tooting, 3-1.

Injuries to key players hindered their early progress, but since top goalscorer Vince Cotter returned to the side, results have improved considerably. Only two of the Tilbury squad are new from last season and so they are relying on their promotion team in Division

Wycombe fans travelling to Tilbury should take the M40 (A40) along the Western Avenue onto the Marylebone Road. Continue into the City until Shoreditch and follow A13 sign to Tilbury and Grays. At roundabout by the Oak public house take right hand fork to Tilbury on past Thurrock Technical College. At T junction turn right and St Chad's road is on the right hand side.
